SCRIPTURES HIS DEFENSE.

McNulty Showed He Had a Right to Drink to Forget His Woe.

What have you to say, John McNulty? Officer Doris says he found you drunk in a hallway at No. 113 Christopher street last night," said Magistrate Crane, in the Jefferson Market Court yesterday morning to a tall, angular prisoner.

"I got over the teachings of the Bible," pleaded the prisoner.

"I don't think you did," replied the Court, "for you were drunk."

"Please hand me that Bible, officer," said McNulty.

McNulty having obtained the Book, turned to Proverbs and read:

"Give strong drink unto him that is ready to perish, and wine unto him that is heavy of heart."

"Let him drink and forget his poverty, and remember his misery no more."

"Discharged," was the brief comment of the Court.

McNulty said that he had been educated in a theological seminary, but drink had ruined him.

Sometimes the most careful woman is the most careless. Many a woman bundles herself up to keep out sickness—when she is neglecting the very worst sickness that can come to a woman. She allows a short disorder to become, worse, to slowly sap her vitality. This ill, like pain and other slight indications of trouble seem to her unimportant. She goes on, with increasing suffering, until life itself becomes a drag. Nervousness, "stinking spells," digestive disturbances, and fifty other complications may arise from the derangement of the organs distinctly feminine. Over thirty years ago, the need for a reliable remedy for so-called "female complaints" was recognized by Dr. E. V. Pierce, then, as now, chief consulting physician to the World's Dispensary and Invalids' Hotel, at Buffalo, N. Y. He prepared Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, the most wonderfully effective remedy that has ever been used for such maladies.

Geo. M. Pullman, the famous manufacturer of Pullman palace cars and president of that company, passed through Lexington from Florida to his home in Chicago. He has spent several weeks in the "Land of Flowers," and is much improved in health.

In talking about his trip, Mr. Pullman said: "Business is improving throughout the country, and I see better times ahead for all sections. The South is the coming section of the country and will blossom into great prosperity during the next ten years, unless all signs in the business world fail." He traveled in a very fine private car.

A "Canary" Story.

A sixteen year old girl, of English, Ind., who recently died, had prior to her death, two canary birds as companions. The cage which contained the birds was hung over the young lady's bed during her illness, and they often sang for her entertainment. The young lady severely scolded the birds the day before she died for being noisy, when they at once drooped their heads and refused to be comforted, both dying within a few days after the passing away of their mistress.—Exchange.

Lead and zinc ore has been discovered on the farm of Dr. H. J. Searcy, four miles from Lawrenceburg, and the mine will be fully developed at once. The main vein lies within a few feet of the surface, and from the report of J. L. Crook, who worked seven years in the Joplin, Mo. mines, it has zinc and lead ore in paying quantities. Mr. W. H. Searcy brother of the discoverer, made the discovery, and he has leased the land to make a full investigation.

ELECTION

Of United States Senators By Popular Vote.

Recently Senator Tugwell, of Indiana, spoke at considerable length in advocacy of the election of United States Senators by popular vote, detailing the uncertainties and frequent scandals attending the present methods of choosing Senators. After reviewing the historical points he spoke directly upon the subject of the case now pending in the Senate, is two of which the Legislature failed to elect and the Senators were appointed by the Governors of the States.

It is not now, uncommon, he said, that the Legislature of the State spends the whole of its session in attempting to elect a Senator and adjourns without succeeding in the attempt, thus subverting the rights and interests local to the people of the State. Under the present method of electing Senators many of the States have been deprived from time to time of their equal suffrage in the Senate, evils which would disappear by the change he advocated.

Kinetoscope Display of the Corbett-Fitzsimmons Fight Is Opposed by the W. C. T. U.

The following from the National President of the W. C. T. U., Miss Francis E. Willard, to President McKinley, is self-explanatory:

Honored Father—As the official representative of the three hundred thousand members of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union of the United States, we earnestly entreat you to call upon Congress to prohibit in the District of Columbia and throughout the various Territories the reproduction, by means of the kinetoscope, or kindred instruments, of the Corbett-Fitzsimmons fight, or any like exhibition at any future time.

We believe that in making this request we are seeking the best welfare of the citizens, especially the youth of our land, who could not but be brutalized by such like-like representations of these degrading spectacles. We learn that preparations upon the largest scale are being made for invading not alone our great cities, but every village and hamlet with this spectacular performance, and that, as was the influence of the fight upon the comparatively few who witnessed it in person, it would be infinitely worse, because so much more far-reaching if thus produced.

We are making a like request of chief officers and Legislatures of the various States, and have strong hope that, in the majority of them, the necessary legislation may result.

We are glad to feel assured at the outset that your personal sympathy must be with us, and that your official sanction will be given to this request, so clearly in the interest of morality. Sincerely and respectfully yours,

FRANCIS E. WILLARD.

Governor Bradley has received a petition which reads:

"We earnestly entreat you to do all in your power to see that a bill is introduced into and carried through the Legislature of your state which shall prohibit the reproduction, by means of the kinetoscope or kindred instruments, of the Corbett-Fitzsimmons fight, or any like exhibition at any future time."

Then in conclusion: "We have already petitioned President McKinley to use his authority to prevent this in the District of Columbia and the Territories, and we are sending this letter to the Governors of the various States. May we not hope for your personal co-operation and earnest indorsement? We learn through the newspapers that Massachusetts and Illinois have already introduced bills prohibiting these exhibitions. We trust these are only the prelude of a great chorus of protests which shall arise from every State in our Nation."

Better Prices For Horses.

A vast improvement was seen in the prices of the horses sold by Peter C. Kellogg at Madison Square Garden, N. Y., on 24th. The major part of the day and evening was occupied in disposing of the consignment made by the Palo Alto Stock Farm, California, and these created comparatively spirited competition, the average for the lot being $300. This of course being a small amount when the great expense of bringing the horses from the Pacific coast is considered, but nevertheless it was so great an improvement as to constitute a decidedly hopeful sign.

THE DEADLY CIGARETTE

Leads a Chicago Real Estate Dealer to Attempt Suicide.

William Leland, real estate dealer, attempted suicide in the Woodlawn Police Station, Chicago, last week by hanging himself from the top of his cell by means of a sheet which he had twisted into a rope. He is not likely to recover. Leland was arrested at his own request, telling the policeman that he had ruined himself by making a fraudulent real estate transaction. It is believed that he became mentally unbalanced through excessive use of cigarettes.

Mr. Andrew Stephens, who died at the home of his niece, R. P. Tyler, of Hickman, Ky., on Saturday the 20th instant, was a Uncle of Mrs. J. C. Thompson. He had been in poor health for quite awhile, having received several attacks of paralysis, and the announcement that he was dead was no surprise. We knew Mr. Tyler as an excellent man, a gentleman with whom friends and strangers as well, delighted to meet and to converse. A great big hearted man who loved and was loved. His home paper, the Shelby Sentinel, speaking of him, says:

"Andrew Stephens was sixty-nine years of age and was born in this county. He had a host of friends, without a single enemy, and sincere sorrow will be felt in every community in this county, when the fact of his death will have become known. He had lived nearly all of his life in Shelby county, and for eight years was Clerk of the County Court. He was honest, kind and sympathetic, a true friend, and no man in the county more thoroughly enjoyed the respect and esteem of our people."

Easter fashions, Easter blossoms, Easter stories and Easter poems all combine to make the Easter number of the Standard Designer an unusually attractive issue. The fashions for ladies, misses and children are, as always, designed with good taste, and illustrated in a pleasing manner; the millinery columns show all the latest models in trimmed and untrimmed hats; and the other pages devoted to woman's adornment and beautifying are all that could be desired by the most critical and exacting feminine reader. Flower culture is intelligently discussed, the latest books reviewed, the newest collection favors pictured and described, and some very delightful hints for fancy work given. The humbler topics of household matters and cookery are by no means neglected, nor are the children forgotten. In fact it would be hard to suggest any improvement in the generous Easter program prepared for the many readers of this most popular magazine. 37-4t.

Cured by Dr. Miles' Nerve Pills.
A new and successful specific for all nervous diseases. Associated with the most reliable medical authorities, it is the only medicine that has been tried in every case of nervous disease, and has been found to be the only remedy that will cure it. One time falling from a carriage, and another time falling from a horse, the author writes from Milwaukee, Feb. 20, 1897.

"There are none more miserable than epileptics, having as high as five or six attacks a day. I tried many of the physicians, paying to one alone, a fee of $1000 and have done little for years but search for something to help me, and have taken all the leading remedies, but received no benefit. A year ago my son, Chas. B. Gallaher, druggist at 191 Reed St., Milwaukee, gave me Dr. Miles' Restorative Nerve, and I tried it with gratifying results. Have had but two since I began taking it. I am better now in every way than I have been in 20 years." Dr. Miles' Remedies are sold by druggists on a positive guarantee that the first bottle will benefit or your money refunded. WHAT NEWS

Is Proper For a Newspaper to Print.

Under this heading the New York Journal prints the following letters, which we think will be interesting and helpful to our readers. These letters in the main recall the declaration made by Charles A. Dana, editor of the New York Sun: "I have always felt that whatever the Divine Providence permitted to occur I was not too proud to print."

BY RICHARD WATSON GILDER.
The conscience of the editor must be his guide.

BY MR. JOHN A. LOGAN.

One's innate sense of refinement should be the best guide as to what is proper to print. Whatever is not of an edifying character and impairing morality as well as intellectually should be avoided. In my opinion, the craze for sensational illustrations works more harm than anything else in these days of progressive journalism, and the sooner there is a halt called the better for all. Anything that feeds a depraved appetite, either in print or illustration, is demoralizing and unfit for decent newspapers. The influence of the press should be used for the ennobling of humanity, not its demoralization. Papers should aim to make their presence acceptable in the home rather than cater to a growing depravity among the few. Whatever is instructive, elevating and strictly true is the highest standard desirable in all journalism, and is entitled to be patronized. With such an aim editors should find the best interests of their readers, their greatest success.

BY REV. DR. HYRON STENDERLAND.
The axiom of the Sun is a splendid one and pernicious. The newspaper ought never to be conducted on such a principle. There are many things that God permits to take place that should be excluded by the public press. Whatever tends to break down the proper feeling of delicacy and modesty in man or woman must, to a greater or less extent, violate not only the language in which it is expressed but the public morals themselves. Of course distinctions are to be drawn, and they must depend on the good judgment of the conductors of the press to publish what will tend to elevate and uplift society.

BY MR. NANTWELL, PAUL DELKOSTER.
I have just been reading an article on this subject in the Voice of Home, one of the weightiest papers in Rome. This article expresses my views so exactly that I shall borrow my sentiments from this source.

I believe that no decent newspaper should publish anything bordering on the vulgar, the immoral or the vicious. To disseminate slander or scandal on a point that it is news is a menace to good morals.

I think it is unparliamentary to publish such details of crime and tragedy as often appear in the American press. A censorship is needed so far as this feature of the new journalism is concerned.

erned. A refined, elevated and intellectual journal is a source of widespread and lasting good. Only news partaking of these qualities should be given to the general public.

REV. DR. HUGH JOHNSTON, OF WASHINGTON.

A newspaper is a great teacher. It is one of the mighty agencies for the education of mankind. It cannot spread all that God permits to take place without being a disseminator of evil. God, Almighty permits devils and wicked men to do infernal things simply because he has gifted them with the power of choice and they freely choose the evil. But it is a shame to "speak of these things done in darkness."

Our daily papers should not be corruptors and contaminators of youth. They should not be filthy sewers, but channels of health. It is not proper to print what is blasphemous, dishonest and brutal. The reports of those senseless prize fights, reproducing before millions what has taken place at some outworn camp, is next to the crime of pugilism itself, and respectable journalism should be ashamed of it.

Men follow the paths they see others treading, and the mere narrative of sensational news leads to the repetition of the evil. The reports of suicides make suicides; of infidelities other infidelities; and though many abuses are unveiled and evidences exposed, yet the report of any unclean news tends to increase the evil. The press is the index and mirror of the times and the organ of public opinion. It is with the moral view we are dealing and the whole tone of the press would be raised if newspapers were not so greedy after news of any kind and wares for all tastes.

HUGH JOHNSTON,
Pastor of Metropolitan M. E. church, which President McKinley attends.

BY THE LIBRARIAN OF CONGRESS, AINSWORTH STODOLSKY.

In reply to the first question, "What is proper and justifiable for newspapers to print?" my answer is, without amplification, anything that is verified as true and which is in the nature of practical information.

Mr. Dana's proposition that, "Anything God permits to happen the Sun is not too proud to print," is broader I think than Mr. Dana would care to go. There are some things so gross that suppression rather than publicity would be the proper course to pursue. We do not, at least, in our healthy moods, exhibit or discuss the more morbid and unhealthy of social disorders. There is a instinctive reluctance in healthy minds to consent to read or discuss the unclean side of life. It is not true that everything permitted to exist becomes thereby a legitimate subject of public discussion.

OCTAVE THANEY BLAMES PART OF THE PUBLIC.

I think a newspaper ought to print the news. Where giving the news and feeding a morbid and depraved appetite for the monstrous, the

You sometimes hear men telling of how hard they work, and how they neglect their health in the pursuit of money. There are thousands of men who admit these things with a sort of pride, and slap their foreheads and regret their recklessness and neglect. They laugh at death, but in a short while, a very short while, the laugh is on the other side. Death waits while they laugh. He who laughs last, laughs best, and in due time death dances on the post of the many funny things in this world but death is not one of them. Neither is ill health for it is one of life's weapons and the most effective.

When a hard working man feels out of sorts, and has a poor appetite, and doesn't sleep, and feels a kind of a morbidness, it is the best health-bringer and health-keeper, and it corrects all disorders of the digestion, invigorates the liver, restores the appetite and keeps it hearty and keen. It drives impurities from the blood and discharges a germ from the body. It builds healthy flesh, firm muscles, and restores active brain cells. It brings restful and restorative action. It cures nervous irritation, nervous exhaustion, and nervous prostration. It cures 98 per cent. of all cases of constipation. It is the discovery of an eminent and skillful specialist, Dr. R. V. Pierce, who for thirty years past, chief consulting physician to the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y.

DR. PIERCE'S

It is a large, a most health, and good health is largely a matter of healthy activity of the bowels. Doctor Pierce's Pleasant Pellets are the best. They are safe, sure and speedy, and once taken, the bowels are in a healthy, active condition. They are a gentle laxative, and two or three taken every day will keep the bowels in perfect order.

horrible, and, to speak plainly, the fire, begins in hard, to tell. I feel that, in this matter, however, it is not the journals that publish sensational news that are the most at fault. It is rather the public that, either by instance at the space given to the Corbett-Filliamson fight, yet carefully reads down to the last sentence. I think, in fact, that the newspapers will be clear as soon as the public will allow them to be.

OCTAVE THANEY.

BY SENOR DE LOME.

Let the paper print the truth. I believe in no censorship but truth. The newspaper that prints the truth is ideal journalism, whether new or old.

Ironworkers' Wages Lower.

Wheeling, W. Va., March 25.—The management of the Kenbridge Iron Company to-day announced to the 300 workmen of the steel plant that a reduction would go into effect on Monday next. Ten per cent is expected by the men. There will be no strike. The company cut their blast furnace men—250 of them—10 per cent last week, but those men refused to consent to work. The Stony Hollow furnace at Steubenville offered a cut of 20 per cent, but the men struck. These concerns all resumed operations with great flourish of trumpets after McKinley's election.

A distinction without a difference amounts to nothing. There is a difference—a real difference—a vast difference—between Dr. Bell's Pine-Tar-Honey and any other cough, cold or lung remedy. To see or taste it proves this immediately, but the greatest difference is to be found in the results coming from its use. Besides cutting the phlegm and curing the cough or cold at once, it soothes the irritation—heals the lungs and bronchitis. It fortifies the system against cold, from those of which no evil after effects can arise.

The bill to appropriate $50,000 for the purpose of erecting a public building in Paris, which was introduced by Mr. Owens in the last session of Congress, has been reproduced by Mr. Senter. It is safe to say that Speaker Reed will find heavily upon all public building bills in this session, and that Paris will not get that $50,000 for many a moon yet.

The Southern Pacific Railway Company has made a proposition to buy the Richmond, Nicholasville, Irvine and Beattyville railroad for 20 per cent. of the uprate price and the payment of the receiver's claims and court expenses.
